

"If it hadn't been for WCF,
I wouldn't have come to Washington."

—Senator Barbara Boxer

"WCF has a simple philosophy: get involved
early and stay involved throughout."

— Governor Ann Richards

needs more women in government?
Everyone.™

30th Annual WCF
Parties of Your Choice Gala

Thursday, March 11, 2010

"WCF was there for me in my first campaign."

—Geraldine Ferraro

Who needs more women in government? Everyone.™

The United States is ranked 84th worldwide in the number of women serving in its national legislature.

Women hold only 17% of the seats in Congress.

That must change—now.

WCF, founded in 1974, is the only non-partisan political venture capitalist organization supporting women leaders at all levels of office, during the earliest stages of their public life, when that support is needed most. By focusing on the woman, not only the race, WCF provides women candidates the personalized care and tools they need throughout their political careers.

Research shows that far fewer women than men consider running for office—and of those, significantly fewer actually run. With 35 years of experience in supporting women at the very earliest stages of their political careers and the award-winning She Should Run™ program, WCF is uniquely positioned to help get far more women to run for office in this nation—now.

WCF is building a national network of women voters, donors, and activists to ensure women's voices are heard. WCF's work is supported by its two sister organizations: WCF PAC, which provides candidate endorsements and funds early, when the need for support is greatest; and WCF Foundation, which produces original research relevant to women in politics.

We believe that equality for women in public office is essential to the strength and future of our nation.
